

— THE ALL-INCLUSIVE EXPERT • TICO #XXXXXXX

There are 200 all-inclusives in the Caribbean and Mexico. About a dozen are actually good. I've stayed at most of them.

I also book honeymoons, family trips, bach weekends, and the rest of the calendar. But if you're looking at a resort, you're in the right place. Same prices as Expedia — except you arrive to upgrades, club access, resort credits, and a human who actually answers when something breaks.

How it works

ALL-INCLUSIVES (THE GOOD ONES) • HONEYMOONS • RIVIERA MAYA • FAMILY RESORTS • EXCELLENCE PLAYA MUJERES

— THE MATH, PLAINLY

Booking the resort direct is literally the same price. But you get less.

Resorts pay travel advisors a commission. Booking through me costs you nothing. They don't lower your rate when you cut us out — they just keep the commission.

So you can pay full price and arrive to a standard room, or pay full price and arrive to a club-level suite with butler service, premium liquor, and $200 in resort credits. That's the pitch.

$5,500 / 7 NIGHTS AT EXCELLENCE PLAYA MUJERES	BOOKING.COM	PREFACE

— WHERE I HAVE THE MOST RECEIPTS

20+ all-inclusives stayed. I've slept in the good ones and the ones that should be condemned.

Most agencies plan resort trips they've only read about. That's how you end up at Sandals when you should be at Excellence Playa Mujeres.

— PERSONALLY STAYED

20+
ALL-INCLUSIVE PROPERTIES

Most all-inclusives are mid. A few are great. You're paying $700/night either way.

I've actually been to Excellence Playa Mujeres, Le Blanc, Zoetry Agua Punta Cana, Sandals Royal Caribbean, Royalton CHIC, Atelier Playa Mujeres, Hyatt Ziva Cap Cana, Secrets Cap Cana, Dreams Riviera Cancun, Excellence Punta Cana, Beaches Turks, Sandals Curaçao — and a dozen more.

I know which property has a real kids' club vs. a babysitter and a bin of crayons. I know which adults-only is genuinely quiet at 11pm and which has a DJ. I know which $700/night room is worth $700 and which is a glorified Holiday Inn.

GROUP LOGISTICS

Bach weekends, milestone trips, multi-gen family. The work is the WhatsApp chats. That's my zone.

— EVERYTHING ELSE WE BOOK

Yes, I do trips that aren't at resorts. The full millennial calendar.

The all-inclusives are the specialty. These are the rest of what we do.

01 / Honeymoon

The trip you've been overthinking for nine months.

Maldives, Italy + Greece. South Africa + Mauritius. Costa Rica + Nicaragua. The right answer depends on whether you want to read books in bed or do something every day.

$8-18K typical • 14 days planning

02 / Family

The all-inclusive that doesn't feel like an all-inclusive.

The kids want a kids' club, the adults want quiet. We know which properties actually deliver both and which ones just claim to.

$5-14K typical • 7 days planning

03 / Bach + Bachelorette

Twelve girls. One villa. Multiple group chats. We can do this.

Mykonos, Tulum, Lisbon, Nashville, Miami. We handle the villa, the dinners, the boat day, and the moment when one of them decides she needs a separate room.

$1.5-3K/pp typical • 21 days planning

04 / Milestone & family group

Twenty people. Five family WhatsApp groups. One trip.

40th birthdays. Parents' anniversaries. Multi-gen Israel trips. Bar/bat mitzvah celebrations abroad. The trips where someone usually loses their mind.

$25-80K typical • 60+ days planning

05 / Babymoon & anniversary

The last trip just the two of you for a while.

Wellness-led, lower-key, somewhere you don't have to think. Six Senses. Como. Aman. Bodyholiday. We've stayed at most of them.

$3-8K typical • 7 days planning

06 / Friend-group annual

The annual ski week / golf week / Greek week that everyone forgets to plan.

Eight friends, one villa or chalet, dinners booked, transfers handled. You stop being the unpaid travel agent for your friend group. That job goes to me.

$2-4K/pp typical • 30 days planning

— THINGS WE ACTUALLY BELIEVE

If you can't tell what your travel agent thinks, they're not your travel agent.

Hot takes from the newsletter. No-pressure click — but if any of these annoy you, we're probably not the right fit.

"Sandals is mid. There are three all-inclusives in the Caribbean that aren't, and none of them advertise on TV."

/ Issue 12, March 2026

"Excellence Playa Mujeres > Excellence Punta Cana. I will die on this hill."

/ Issue 14, April 2026

"If your all-inclusive sells a 'butler & private pool' add-on for $700/wk, you should be in Excellence Club. Same amenities. No upcharge."

/ Issue 11, March 2026

"Royalton CHIC is fine if you're 22. Otherwise the music will end you."

/ Issue 8, January 2026

— HOW IT WORKS

The whole thing, in four steps.

None of them weird.

1 20-min intro call You tell me where you're going (or not), when, who, and a budget you'd consider spending. I tell you whether I'm the right fit.	2 Planning fee $300–$2,500 depending on trip complexity. Locks in your dates and gets me building. Refundable through the first proposal if it's not what you wanted.	3 Proposal & iterate 2–3 options with real numbers, real itineraries, real reasoning. We refine. Once you're in, you book through my platform at the same rate Expedia would charge.	4 You go. I stay awake. WhatsApp me if a flight cancels, a hotel's overbooked, or you want a restaurant rec in Tokyo at 11pm local. I'm the human in the loop.
