

Equal Quadrant

Current B layout. Four equal cards, stat-led. All competencies weighted the same. Safe, modular, easiest to scale to 5+ items.

Most travel agencies plan trips they've never taken. I've slept in most of these.

Generalist agency, deep pockets of expertise. If your trip touches any of these areas, you're getting more than google-able advice.

20+ ALL-INCLUSIVES Excellence, Zoetry, Le Blanc, Royalton, Sandals. I've stayed at the good ones and the ones that should be condemned. I have notes.	15+ CARIBBEAN + MEXICO DR, Riviera Maya, Cabo, Tulum, Turks, BVI, St. Lucia, Anguilla. I know which beaches have seaweed and which don't.	7+ EUROPEAN CITIES The honeymoon circuits and the underrated alternatives. Italy, Greece, Spain, Croatia. Where to stay, where to eat.	∞ GROUP LOGISTICS 10-pax bach weekends to 30-person family trips. The work isn't the destination — it's the WhatsApp chats. That's my zone.

Feature + Sidebar

Asymmetric. All-inclusives gets a feature treatment with massive stat + brand showcase. Other expertise areas stack vertically as sidebar items. Visually leads to the specialty without losing the other credentials.

Most travel agencies plan trips they've never taken. I've slept in most of these.

Generalist agency, with one area where the depth runs especially deep.

SPECIALTY 20+ all-inclusives, personally stayed Most agencies plan resort trips they've only read about. That's how clients end up at Sandals when they should be at Excellence Playa Mujeres. I know which property has a real kids' club, which adults-only is genuinely quiet at 11pm, and which $700/night room is actually worth $700.
