SECTION 00

How to Use This Document

This is the tactical companion to the strategic plan. The plan tells you what Preface is. This tells you what to do tomorrow.

RULE 00

If a section doesn't have a checklist, a script, a workflow, or a number you're tracking — it's not a section. It's a vibe. Skip the vibes.

The Four Question Test

Before you start any activity in this playbook, the activity must answer four questions. If it can't, you're wasting time.

1. What's the goal? Stated as a number with a deadline.
2. What's the first action? The thing you do in the next 60 minutes.
3. What's the KPI? The number you check at the end of the week.
4. What's the kill condition? When do you stop and pivot.

The Single Rule of Sequencing

Run the funnels in this order. Don't move to the next one until the previous one is producing.

SEQUENCE	FUNNEL	MOVE ON WHEN
1	Warm Network (M1)	5 bookings closed
2	Partnerships (M2–3)	3+ formal partners signed
3	Cold Outreach (M2–4)	1500 emails/day stable, replies routing to VA
4	Content Inbound (M4 onward)	Newsletter at 1,000 subs
5	Business Travel (M5 onward)	3 corporate accounts signed

Running everything in parallel before any one is working is the most common founder mistake. Each funnel takes ~3 weeks of focused activation to produce. Don't start a new one until the last one is producing predictably.

How to Read the Weekly Checklists

- Each week has 3–5 items. Not 15.
- Items are written as "Do X" not "Think about Y."
- The deliverable line is what you produce by Friday EOW.
- If you complete the list, you're on pace. If not, the next week's items don't change — you compress instead.

SECTION 01

The Operating Principles (Non-Negotiable)

PRINCIPLE 01

Volume + iteration > Strategy. The plan you'll execute is the 80% plan you start with this week, not the 100% plan you'll figure out next month. Send 50 cold emails today, not 5 perfect ones next Monday.

PRINCIPLE 02

Build the funnel before you optimize it. The first version of every funnel will convert poorly. That's fine. You can't optimize what you haven't built. Get to 100 conversations before you A/B test the script.

PRINCIPLE 03

Every channel gets 90 days, then a verdict. If a channel isn't producing measurable output after 90 days of consistent effort, kill it. Don't be sentimental. Sentiment is how you become a content creator who doesn't sell trips.

PRINCIPLE 04

Make > Schedule > Reply > Optimize. In that order, every day. Block your highest-cognitive hour for new outbound (Make), then schedule the calls you booked yesterday (Schedule), then reply to inbound (Reply), then optimize anything (Optimize). Reversed: you'll spend the day in your inbox and ship nothing.

PRINCIPLE 05

The dollar-per-hour test. If a task pays less than $40/hr at your current run-rate, the VA does it. If it pays less than $100/hr, you only do it when no VA can. Below that math, your time is the constraint — not your money.

PRINCIPLE 06

Two-week pivot horizon. Strategic pivots happen at two-week intervals, not daily. You decide on Day 1 of a sprint what you'll execute. You don't change the plan until Day 14, even if a sexier idea shows up on Day 7. The sexier idea goes in the queue, not the schedule.

PRINCIPLE 07

One number per week. The week is owned by one metric: net commission booked. Not impressions. Not followers. Not partnerships in motion. Booked. Closed. Money-in-mouth. Everything else is a leading indicator and leading indicators lie.

What You Will Not Do

These look productive. They aren't. Avoid:

- Rebrand work after Week 4. The brand is the brand. Iterating fonts and palettes is procrastination.
- Tool research beyond Week 2. The tools are picked. Stop browsing alternatives.
- Networking events with no specific outcome. Coffees with named people, yes. "Travel agent meetups," no.
- FAM trips that aren't fully comped. You'll be tempted. Don't. Your CV is already strong enough.
- Building a course / e-book / training in Y1. You'd be teaching what you don't yet know.
- Writing replies longer than the inbound message. Your reply length should be 50–80% of theirs.

SECTION 02

The Five Funnels

Every dollar of revenue enters through one of these five funnels. Build them in order. Track each independently.

FUNNEL A

M1-6 · 50-80 bookings · 60% of Y1 revenue

Warm Network Activation

Mechanic: Your existing 150-person Toronto/Thornhill network → 1-to-1 messages → coffees → bookings → referrals.

Stages of the funnel:

1. List built (150 names with context) — Week 1
2. Initial message sent (1-to-1, personal) — Week 2-4
3. Coffee/call scheduled — Week 3-6
4. Trip context surfaced — during coffee/call
5. Proposal sent — within 48h of call
6. Booking closed — within 7 days of proposal
7. Referral asked (post-trip) — 3 days after they return

Conversion targets: 30% reply rate → 50% of replies become calls → 40% of calls become proposals → 60% of proposals close. End-to-end on a 150-person list = ~5-9 bookings from cold + 15-25 more across 6 months from warm follow-ups.

Kill condition: If end-of-M2 shows <15 reply, you re-do messaging (not list).

FUNNEL B

M2-ongoing · 20+ active partners by Y2 · 25% of Y1 revenue

Partnership Engine

Mechanic: Wedding planners, real estate agents, mortgage brokers, photographers, jewelers, financial advisors → referral agreements (25% commission share) → repeat referrals.

Stages:

1. Target list of 50 named partners by sector
2. Cold message OR warm intro to 20 in M2-3
3. 15 coffees scheduled
4. 5-8 sign formal agreement
5. Each delivers 2-5 referrals/yr (average)
6. Top 20% deliver 80% of partnership volume

The compounding: Year 1 = 8 partners × 3 referrals/year = 24 referrals. Year 2 = 18 partners × 4 referrals = 72 referrals. The partnership engine takes 6 months to seed and 12 months to compound.

Kill condition: Drop any partner producing <1 referral in 9 months. Keep the relationship; remove from active outreach.

FUNNEL C

Cold Outreach Engine

M3—ongoing · 1500 emails/day · 5–10 incremental bookings/month

Mechanic: Apollo lead lists → Instantly multi-domain sender → VA reply triage → calls → bookings.

Two sequences run in parallel:

- B2B sequence: US wedding planners, real estate agents, mortgage brokers, photographers. Looking for partnership conversations. (See Funnel B.)
- B2C sequence: Engaged couples from public engagement announcements + family travel intent signals. Looking for bookings directly.

Funnel math: 1,500 emails/day × 22 working days = 33,000 emails/month. ~1.5% reply rate = 495 replies/mo → VA filters to ~50 qualified → 30 calls booked → 8 proposals → 5 bookings.

Kill condition: If after 90 days the cold funnel is producing <3 bookings/mo, audit deliverability first (Glock Apps test), copy second, list third. Don't kill until you've fixed all three.

FUNNEL D

M4—ongoing · 5K subs Y1 / 50K social Y2 · 15% of Y1 → 30% of Y3 revenue

Content

Inbound

Mechanic: Voice memos from you → VA produces newsletter + IG + TikTok + LinkedIn → subscribers/followers → DMs/intake form → bookings.

Channel hierarchy:

1. Newsletter (owned channel, biweekly) — the primary asset
2. Instagram (reach + visual proof) — the trust channel
3. LinkedIn (business travel + advisor positioning)
4. TikTok (cold reach, viral upside)
5. YouTube Shorts (repurposed TikTok content, evergreen)

Funnel math (Y1 target): 5,000 newsletter subs × 1% trip-intent → 50 leads/mo × 30% close → 15 bookings/mo. By Y2, double that.

Kill condition: Any individual social channel that doesn't 2x its followers per quarter for two consecutive quarters gets dropped.

FUNNEL E

Business

Travel

M5—ongoing · 5–10 corporate accounts by Y1 end · 20% of Y2 revenue

Mechanic: LinkedIn-led outreach to SMB executives + sole-prop founders + sales leaders → onboarding call → booking-on-file relationship → 20–50 trips/year per account.

Why business travel is different:

- Frequency: One corporate account = 20–50 hotel bookings/year vs 1–2 leisure trips
- Margin: Lower per-trip ($40–120 net) but compounded by volume
- Loyalty: Once they hand you their card, they stay 3–5 years
- Sales cycle: 2–4 weeks (longer than leisure but with lifetime value 10x)
- Counter-cyclical: Business travel runs Sun–Thu; leisure runs Fri–Sun. They fill each other's calendar gaps.

Why this is your unfair advantage: You work in sales. You speak the language. Your daytime network already includes the buyer persona. (See Section 06 for the full playbook.)

Funnel math: 200 LinkedIn DMs/mo → 30 conversations → 10 discovery calls → 5 signed accounts × 30 trips/yr × $80 net = $12,000/mo recurring by Y1 end.

Kill condition: Per-account volume of <10 trips/yr after 6 months means re-pitching the account or replacing them.

SECTION 04

The 150-Person Warm Network Activation

The single highest-ROI activity in Year 1. Done well, this is 50–80 bookings in M1–6.

Step 1 — Build the List (Day 1, 2 hours)

Export every contact from: phone, Gmail, Instagram, LinkedIn, WhatsApp, your wedding/engagement guest lists, your sales-pipeline CRM (if relevant), your gym/community/synagogue WhatsApp groups. Goal: 200+ raw names. Filter to ~150 with 7 columns of context.

The 150-Person Sheet Template

NAME	HOW I KNOW THEM	DEMO	LIKELY NEXT TRIP	BEST CHANNEL	APPROACH WEEK	STATUS
Sarah K	HS friend	Engaged, 28	Honeymoon Sept	iMessage	W3	Not contacted
David C	Cousin	Family, 3 kids	March break	WhatsApp	W3	Not contacted
Maya R	Family friend	40s, 3 kids	Pesach	iMessage	W4	Not contacted
Jordan P	Real estate agent friend	35, married	Likely partnership	Coffee	W4	Not contacted

Step 2 — Categorize (Day 1, 30 min)

TIER	PROFILE	APPROACH	~VOLUME
Tier 1: Booking Candidates	Friends/family with trip intent in next 12 months	Direct: "Here's what I do. Want to chat?"	40–60
Tier 2: Referral Sources	People with strong networks; in-community influencers	Hybrid: "Here's what I do. If anyone you know is planning..."	30–40
Tier 3: Partnership Candidates	Wedding planners, real estate, mortgage, photographers, jewelers	Partnership pitch (Section 05)	20–30
Tier 4: Awareness	Acquaintances; community contacts; older peers	Light: "Hey, wanted to share what I'm doing"	20–30

Step 3 — The Three Message Templates

TEMPLATE A — TIER 1 (BOOKING CANDIDATE)

1-to-1 personal text or WhatsApp. Voice memo also works for closer friends. Send 5–10 per evening, not in batch.

Hey [Name] — quick note. I just got licensed as a travel advisor with Fora (the modern host agency — not your parents' travel agent kind of thing). I'm now booking trips for friends and family. The hotel pays the commission, so it costs you nothing — but you get upgrades, daily breakfast, $100 hotel credits, and a human (me) on WhatsApp if something goes wrong. Thinking of you because [specific reason: your honeymoon coming up / family March break / 5th anniversary / etc.]. Want to grab a coffee or hop on a call this/next week and chat through it? No pressure if the timing's off — would love to be on your list for the next one.

TEMPLATE B — TIER 2 (REFERRAL SOURCE)

Same channel as A but framing pivots to network leverage.

Hey [Name] — wanted to share something new I'm doing. Just got my Fora travel-advisor license. I'm booking trips for friends and family — the model is the hotel pays the commission, so clients get upgrades, breakfast, and credits at the same price they'd pay direct. I'm focused on honeymoons, family trips, bach weekends, and milestone travel. (Real specialty: all-inclusives. I've stayed at 20+.) Reason I'm reaching out: anyone in your circle planning something? Even just a name to put on my radar would be huge. Coffee on me if you want to chat through it.

TEMPLATE C — TIER 3 (PARTNERSHIP CANDIDATE)

More formal. See Section 05 for the full partnership playbook.

Hey [Name] — been meaning to reach out. I just got my travel-advisor license and I'm building out Preface (preface.travel). The model: I book honeymoons, family trips, bach weekends, milestone group travel, and corporate travel at properties where my consortia status (Fora is a Virtuoso member + has direct preferred-partner status with Four Seasons, Belmond, Rosewood, Hyatt, etc.) gets clients upgrades, breakfast, resort credits, the works — at no cost above what Booking.com would charge. The opportunity for us: anyone you send my way, I send you 25% of my commission. Paid quarterly. No contract, no quota. Quick 30-min coffee to walk through how the referral mechanic works?

Step 4 — The Send Cadence

WHEN	ACTION	VOLUME
Week 3	Send to Tiers 1+2, batch 1 (top 50 by trip-intent score)	50 sent
Week 3, Day 5	Follow-up text to non-responders from batch 1: "Hey — saw my message didn't go through, did it? :)"	~25 nudges
Week 4	Send to Tiers 1+2, batch 2 (next 50)	50 sent
Week 4, Day 5	Follow-up nudge to batch 2 non-responders	~25 nudges
Week 5	Send to Tier 4 + remaining Tier 2 (final 50)	50 sent
Week 5, Day 5	Follow-up nudge	~25 nudges
Week 6	Final follow-up to all non-responders (30 days post-initial)	~75 nudges
Week 8	Stop chasing non-responders. Add to quarterly "life update" list.	—

Step 5 — Conversion Workflow (What Happens After They Reply)

1. They say "tell me more": Send Calendly link. 20-min intro call. (Section 10 for call structure.)
2. They say "actually, I have a trip coming up": Voice-memo back enthusiasm, drop Calendly link immediately, hold the date in your calendar mentally.
3. They say "I'll keep you in mind": Reply with one specific value-add ("Just FYI, if you're thinking about [destination they mentioned], the time to book is X weeks before"). Add to 90-day re-touch list.
4. They don't reply: One follow-up (above). Then drop into quarterly life-update cadence.

Step 6 — The Referral Ask (Critical and Most Skipped)

After every closed booking, three specific moments to ask for referrals:

- At booking confirmation: "Thanks so much for trusting me on this — if you know anyone planning a trip in the next 6 months, even just a heads-up before they go to Booking.com is huge."
- 3 days post-trip: Welcome-back message + photo request. End with: "If you loved the experience, the highest compliment is sending one friend my way."
- Annually: Birthday or anniversary message that includes: "Anything on the calendar I should help with?"

THE NUMBER TO HIT

From 150 warm-network outreach, expect 30–50% response rate, 15–25% conversation rate, 8–12% booking rate. That's 12–18 bookings just from this funnel in M1–3. If you're not hitting 30% response rate by W6, rewrite messages. List is rarely the problem.

SECTION 05

The Partnership Playbook

A signed partnership is worth ~$3K–15K per year in commission revenue. Get 20 of them. Scale.

The 50-Partner Target List

#	PARTNER TYPE	Y1 TARGET	VOLUME / PARTNER / YR	WHY THEY WORK
1	Wedding planners (Toronto/Thornhill)	5–7	5–15 referrals	Every wedding = honeymoon. Highest density.
2	Real estate agents (luxury Toronto)	5–8	2–5 referrals	Closing a $2M home = client celebrates with a trip.
3	Mortgage brokers	3–5	2–4 referrals	Closing a mortgage = client books vacation home stay.
4	Wedding photographers	4–6	3–8 referrals	Same client overlap as planners; less competitive density.
5	Bridal stylists / dress shops	2–3	2–4 referrals	Captive engaged audience.
6	Jewelers (engagement rings)	2–3	2–5 referrals	Earliest touch-point in honeymoon journey.
7	Caterers / venues	3–4	3–6 referrals	Repeat referrer; talks to engaged couples weekly.
8	Wealth advisors / financial planners	3–5	1–3 referrals	Affluent client base; gift-able commissions (see workaround).
9	Personal trainers / wellness studios	2–3	1–3 referrals	Hot Toronto demographic; high trust.
10	Concierge medical clinics	1–2	2–5 referrals	Captive affluent audience; doctor referrals high trust.
11	Dental / orthodontic practices (premium)	1–2	1–2 referrals	Lower volume but high LTV.
12	Estate & family lawyers	1–2	1–3 referrals	Milestone moments = trips.
13	Spa / aesthetics clinics	2–3	1–3 referrals	Captive female 30+ demographic.
14	Auto dealerships (luxury)	1–2	1–2 referrals	Discretionary spend overlap.
15	Private school admins / parent-association leads	1–2	2–5 referrals	March break + family trip density.

The Coffee Pitch (Verbatim, ~3 min)

PARTNERSHIP COFFEE PITCH

For 30-min coffee. First 3 min is the pitch. Rest is their questions + getting specific about the first referral.

"Thanks for grabbing coffee. Quick context on what I'm doing — and the reason I asked is specifically because the best clients in this business come from people like you, who are in the room when couples and families are making big decisions. I just got licensed as a travel advisor with Fora — the modern, millennial-focused host agency. We're a Virtuoso member, we have direct preferred-partner status with Four Seasons, Belmond, Rosewood, Aman, Hyatt (including the Hyatt Inclusive Collection — Secrets, Dreams, Zoëtry), and most major chains. What that means for clients is: same rate as Booking.com, but they arrive to a room upgrade, daily breakfast, $100–200 in resort credits, and a human (me) on WhatsApp if something breaks. The arrangement I'd propose for us: anyone you send my way who books, I send you 25% of my commission. Paid quarterly. No contract, no quota. If you send 10 couples in a year that book around $8K each, that's about $1,800–$2,500 in your pocket. If you send zero, no problem. The reason this works in our community specifically: you and I know everyone. The same family planning a Pesach trip is planning their daughter's bat mitzvah trip is planning their parents' 60th. One trusted advisor handles all of it. That advisor should be me — and you should get paid for being the connection. I'm also certified specifically on all-inclusives — I've personally stayed at 20+ properties (Excellence, Le Blanc, Zoetry, Hyatt Inclusive Collection, Sandals, etc.). So if you're sending clients my way who want a resort trip, they're getting someone with actual receipts, not a generalist. Want to try it for 90 days, no formal commitment, and see what happens?"

The Formal Agreement (1-Page Template)

Preface Travel — Referral Partnership Agreement (Template)

Effective: [Date]

Between: Preface Travel Co. ("Preface") and [Partner Name / Business] ("Partner")

Compensation: Preface will pay Partner 25% of net commission received on each Referral booking, calculated after Fora's 30% host-agency cut and excluding planning fees retained by Preface.

Payment Schedule: Quarterly, within 30 days of quarter-end, by e-transfer or cheque.

Tracking: Partner will introduce Referrals via warm email or DM, copying [partner@preface.travel]. Each Referral receives a unique partner-attribution tag in Preface's CRM.

Exclusivity: Non-exclusive on both sides.

Confidentiality: Standard mutual.

Signed: _____ Date: _____

The Onboarding Sequence (Partner Side)

1. Day 0: Agreement signed (DocuSign or PDF e-signature).
2. Day 1: Partner receives Welcome Pack: 2-page brief on how to refer (1-line text template + sample blurb to send their clients).
3. Day 7: Check-in: "Just confirming you've got everything — any first referrals on the radar?"
4. Day 30: Monthly partner update email: any commissions paid, any new collateral, one client-friendly content piece.
5. Day 90: Quarterly review call (15 min). If 0 referrals: re-onboard. If 1+: thank, share results, ask for testimonial.

Workaround for Financial Advisor Partnerships

Most financial advisors can't accept outside commissions due to their broker-dealer's compliance rules. Workaround: instead of cash, gift dinner / hotel stay / charity donation of equivalent value. Frame as "client-appreciation gift". Same economics for them, no compliance flag.

Specifically: a $1,200 commission share can be paid as a $1,200 hotel stay you book for them, a $1,200 dinner at Donalds Club, or a $1,200 donation in their name to a charity of their choice (often the most-appreciated option).

The Top 20% Rule

By Month 6, ~20% of your partners will be producing ~80% of your partnership volume. Identify them. Treat them like A-list:

- Monthly check-ins (not quarterly)
- Sole-source first FAM trip slots
- Featured in newsletter "Partner of the Quarter"
- Bumped to 30% commission share after their 5th referral

THE NUMBER TO HIT

8–10 signed partnerships by end of Month 3. 20 by end of Y1. Each producing average 3 referrals/yr = 60 incremental bookings/yr from the partnership engine alone.

SECTION 06

The Business Travel Playbook

The funnel most travel advisors ignore. The funnel that produces the most predictable recurring revenue. The funnel that fits your existing sales-led skill set.

Why This Works (And Why It's a New Funnel for Preface)

DIMENSION	LEISURE TRAVEL	BUSINESS TRAVEL
Trips per client per year	1-2	20-50
Average trip value	$4-15K	$800-3K
Avg net commission per trip	$400-1,500	$40-120
Annual revenue per client	$500-3K	$1,500-6K
Client lifetime (years)	1-2 (trip-driven)	3-5+ (relationship-driven)
Sales cycle	1-3 weeks	2-4 weeks
Seasonal pattern	Heavy Q1, Q3-Q4	Sun-Thu year-round
Buyer persona	Couples 28-36 / families	Founders, partners, sales execs, consultants
Your edge	Network density, lived AI expertise	You already work in sales. You speak their language.

The Ideal Business Travel Client Profile (ICP)

Not every executive wants a travel advisor. The ones who do share these traits:

1. Travel 20-60 nights/year on business. Less = not worth handing off. More = they have an in-house corporate travel desk already.
2. Their company has <200 employees — bigger has procurement-managed travel via Concur/Egencia. Smaller is where you live.

3. Status-driven — they care about Marriott Titanium, Hilton Diamond, AmEx Platinum. They book based on points and recognition, not just price.
4. Time-poor — their time is worth $300+/hr. Saving 30 min on a booking is the value prop, not saving $50.
5. Roles: SaaS founders/CEOs/CROs, real estate principals, M&A lawyers, consultants (independent or partner level), private wealth advisors, healthcare practice owners, agency owners, regional sales VPs.

What You're Actually Selling Them

WHAT THEY THINK THEY WANT	WHAT YOU ACTUALLY SELL
Cheaper hotels	Better hotels at the same price (Hyatt Privé, Marriott STARS, Hilton for Luxury amenities on their work trip)
Convenience	30 min/week saved — you book, change, cancel, expense-summarize
Loyalty point optimization	Yes, you do this too — layer their points + your Fora consortium benefits
Travel disruption protection	WhatsApp at 11pm when their flight cancels in Newark
Status without playing the game	You match their status across brands when possible (Hyatt status match, Hilton, Marriott)

The LinkedIn Outreach Sequence (60 days, 5 touches)

TOUCH 1 — DAY 0 — CONNECTION REQUEST

Add personalized note. Don't pitch.

Hey [Name] — saw you [recent post / specific company moment / mutual connection]. Building Preface — corporate travel for founders + sales leaders in Toronto. Curious to connect.

TOUCH 2 — DAY 3 (POST-ACCEPTANCE) — SOFT HELLO

Don't pitch yet. Drop value or relate.

Appreciate the connect. Quick context on me: I'm 5 years into [B2B SaaS / fintech / commercial real estate — whatever your domain is]. Been on the road a lot. Last year I started Preface, a Toronto-based travel-advisor practice focused on millennial founders + sales leaders. The thesis: most people in our world are leaking 30 minutes / week on Marriott.com when a 2-min Slack to me would handle it. Not pitching today — just wanted to connect. If your travel volume's high enough that the friction has occurred to you, happy to chat anytime.

TOUCH 3 — DAY 14 — VALUE DROP

Send a useful resource. Build authority.

Quick one [Name] — in case it's useful, just published a 3-min read on the 5 hotels in Toronto where the loyalty math actually pays off for elite-tier members: [LINK to your newsletter]. If business travel's in your week, the second one (Park Hyatt) is genuinely under-leveraged.

TOUCH 4 — DAY 30 — THE SPECIFIC ASK

Now you can pitch.

[Name] — been a few weeks since we connected. Quick ask: I'm onboarding 5 founders + sales execs onto Preface this quarter as an "anchor cohort." The deal: I become your bookings desk for hotels + flights, all your existing loyalty programs stay yours (I just book under them), and the hotels pay my fee, so it costs you nothing. The upside for you: Hyatt Privé / Marriott STARS / Hilton for Luxury benefits on your business stays (upgrade, $50–100 hotel credit, breakfast) layered on top of your status. Plus you stop logging into Marriott.com. Want to do a 20-min onboarding call to see if it fits? Calendly: [LINK]

TOUCH 5 — DAY 60 — THE CLOSER

Final pass. Either close or move on.

Last note from me, [Name] — circling back on Preface. The anchor-cohort offer expires end of [Month] (after that, I'm priced normally and the pre-bookings credit goes away). If business travel's not a frequent enough thing for you, totally understand — happy to be here when it is. If it is, the 20-min call is at [LINK] and the upgrade-package perk alone usually pays for the time.

The Onboarding Call (20 minutes)

MINUTE	WHAT YOU DO
0–2	Rapport + agenda. "Goal of this call is to understand your travel pattern + figure out if I can save you time."
2–6	Discovery: How many nights/year? Which cities? Which chains/airlines? What's your current loyalty status?
6–10	Map the value: For their specific pattern, you'd save them ~X hours/year + capture ~$Y in additional Hyatt Privé/STARS/Impresario amenities.
10–14	Walk through the process: Slack/email me the trip, I book, you get confirmation in 30 min, your card on file gets charged direct by the hotel.
14–17	Address objections (Section 10).
17–20	Close: "If this all makes sense, can we set you up this week? Takes ~15 min for me to load your preferences + card."

The Business Travel Onboarding Workflow

- Day 0 (post-call): Send onboarding form (Typeform / Tally). Capture: name, DOB, passport details, hotel loyalty numbers, airline status, dietary/seat preferences, billing card.
- Day 1: Confirm receipt. Set up their profile in your CRM with all preferences. Connect their accounts where you have advisor access (Hyatt Privé linkable, Marriott STARS, Hilton for Luxury, Four Seasons FSPP).
- Day 2: Share their "Travel Profile" PDF (one-pager with everything you'll need to book). They confirm.
- Day 3: Activation. "First trip on the books — what's coming up?"
- Ongoing: They Slack/email you the trip details (dates, city, conference if relevant). You book within 60 min. Confirmation goes back via same channel.

The Business Travel Pricing Model

TIER	COST	WHAT IT INCLUDES
Standard	$0/trip (commission-funded)	Hotel bookings under Fora's Privé/STARS/Virtuoso programs. Client gets upgrade, breakfast, credit at no charge.
Concierge	$25/trip OR $150/month subscription	Adds: flight booking, restaurant reservations, car/transfer coordination, disruption recovery, lounge advice.
Executive	$500/month	Above + 24/7 WhatsApp + dedicated profile + quarterly travel optimization review + spouse/family leisure trip planning included.

Most clients land in Standard (free, you make the commission). Tier 2 is for clients with 25+ nights and complex air. Tier 3 is for the top 10% of accounts — founders / partners who'll spend $30–60K/yr in total travel.

The Account Renewal Mechanic

Business travel clients aren't "renewed" formally — they're retained by being useful. The retention check-ins:

- Monthly: 30-min "trip review" email summarizing booked vs cancelled vs upgraded.
- Quarterly: 20-min call. Review status progress, upcoming travel, leisure-trip cross-sell.
- Annually: Loyalty optimization session. Walk through their Hyatt/Marriott/Hilton spend, recommend status-match opportunities, leverage Privé/STARS for upcoming year.

THE NUMBER TO HIT

5–10 business travel accounts by end of Y1. Each averaging 25–35 hotel nights/yr × $60 net commission = $8–12K/yr recurring per account. By Y2 H2: 20 accounts = $160–240K of recurring revenue independent of leisure seasonality.

SECTION 07

The Content Engine

Content doesn't make sales in Y1. Content makes trust in Y1. Trust closes sales in Y2–3.

7.1 — Voice & the 50/30/20 Mix

Voice Profile (Brief for Content VA)

Tone: Smart, opinionated, playful, slightly irreverent. Think: a sharp friend who travels well and tells you the truth.

Vocabulary: Specific, concrete, brand-name-heavy. Numbers over adjectives. "Excellence Playa Mujeres" not "a top all-inclusive." "$3,460 in upgrade value" not "amazing perks."

Sentence length: Short. Punchy. Stack short ones until you need a longer one for rhythm. Then a short one again.

Allowed: Hot takes. Opinions. Self-aware millennial humor. Calling things "mid." Acknowledging trade-offs. Using "lol" sparingly. Memes if they're good.

Forbidden: "Indulge." "Savor." "Unparalleled luxury." "Embark on a journey." Anything that sounds like a 1996 travel brochure. Emoji overuse. "Wanderlust." "Bucket list" (use only with self-aware framing).

Reference brands: Mejuri, Away, Glossier (for voice). Aman, Belmond (NOT for voice — for visual references only).

THE 50/30/20 CONTENT MIX

%	TYPE	PURPOSE	EXAMPLE POSTS
50%	Practical / Tactical	Build authority. Teach something useful. Drive search + saves.	"How to pick between Excellence Punta Cana vs Playa Mujeres", "What Hyatt Privé actually gets you at a Secrets resort", "The 5 best Toronto hotels for executive travelers"
30%	Opinionated / Voice	Differentiation. Build the brand persona.	"Sandals is mid", "Tulum is performance art", "If you're paying for a butler suite, you should be in Excellence Club"
20%	Personal / Story	Trust + humanization. Show the work.	Client trip recaps, FAM trip notes, behind-the-scenes booking moments, your own travel photos with takes

WHY LINKEDIN SPECIFICALLY MATTERS FOR PREFACE

LinkedIn isn't for the leisure-travel audience. It's for the business travel funnel and the partnership funnel (financial advisors, real estate principals, lawyers). Treat it as a B2B channel.

POSTING CADENCE: 3X/WEEK (MON, WED, FRI)

DAY	TYPE	TOPIC
Mon	Insight post (400–600 words)	The business travel angle ("How Hyatt Privé status matching works for a Toronto founder")
Wed	Personal story (200–400 words)	Client moment, partnership win, FAM trip note — framed around an insight
Fri	Opinion / contrarian post (200–400 words)	Industry take ("The travel industry's biggest mistake with founders")

Line 1: Hook. One specific claim or observation. (e.g., "I helped a Toronto founder save 30 minutes a week. He still thinks he hired me for the upgrades.")

Line 2 (blank):

Lines 3–15: The story or insight. Short paragraphs (1–3 lines each). Concrete examples. Numbers.

Line 16 (blank):

Last line: One-line takeaway OR a soft question.

Optional PS: "I'm building Preface for founders + sales execs who travel 25+ nights/year. DM me if that's you."

9.3 — The Cold-Outreach Reply Triage (Daily, VA-owned)

Cold outreach generates 5–25 replies per day. VA processes them in three buckets:

BUCKET	DEFINITION	ACTION
A — Hot	Specific trip intent OR partnership interest with details	Slack you immediately; you book a call within 24h
B — Warm	"Tell me more" type replies, no specifics	VA sends pre-approved follow-up; if engaged, escalate to A
C — Nurture	"Not now, maybe later"	Add to 90-day quarterly newsletter list
D — Bounce/ Decline	"Unsubscribe", "Not interested", "Wrong person"	VA removes from list immediately

9.4 — The Content Production Workflow (Weekly)

DAY	STEP	OWNER	OUTPUT
Mon	Founder records 5–8 min voice memo on topic of week	You	1 voice memo
Mon	Forward 1–2 client photos (anonymized) to VA	You	Visuals
Tue	VA transcribes + drafts: newsletter, 1 LinkedIn post, 1 IG carousel script, 1 TikTok script	VA	Drafts
Wed	VA designs IG carousel in Canva + edits any video	VA	Assets ready
Thu	You review batch (~30 min). Approve or send 1–2 line edits.	You	Approved batch
Fri	VA publishes newsletter Fri 10am ET, then schedules week's social via Buffer/Later	VA	Live + queued
Sat	You record 2 TikToks (15–30 min batch)	You	Raw clips
Sun	VA edits TikToks + Reels, schedules for Mon/Wed/Fri	VA	Queued

Total weekly founder time on content: ~90 minutes.

9.5 — The Partnership Pipeline Workflow

1. Identify (week 0): Add to Notion partnership pipeline w/ score (1–10 on referral-likelihood).
2. First touch (week 1): DM or warm intro request. Calendar coffee.
3. Coffee (week 2): Section 05 pitch. If interested, send agreement same day.
4. Sign (week 2–3): DocuSign or PDF e-signed. Send Welcome Pack.
5. First referral check-in (week 7): "Anyone on the radar?"
6. Monthly check-in (months 2–6): Update on activity + new content.
7. Quarterly review (month 3, 6, 9, 12): 15-min call. Performance review + recommit or graceful drop.

9.6 — The Booking Workflow (Inside Fora Portal)

1. Client confirms booking via Calendly + payment of planning fee.
2. Fora portal: search hotel, layer Privé/STARS/Virtuoso amenity, confirm rate.

3. If applicable, book through Fora Reserve / Hyatt Privé / FSPP portal for direct amenity attribution.
4. Cross-check: rate + room category + amenity package matches proposal.
5. Confirm booking; send client confirmation with full details + amenity list.
6. Add to CRM: booking record, expected commission, planning fee captured.
7. Set 30/14/2-day pre-trip reminders.

9.7 — The Automation Layer (Zapier / Make.com)

ZAP	TRIGGER	ACTION
Z1: Lead capture	Tally form submitted	Create CRM record + send Slack notif + auto-confirm email
Z2: Call booked	Calendly confirmed	Create CRM activity + send prep checklist email
Z3: Newsletter signup	Beehiiv new subscriber	Add to CRM "Newsletter list" segment
Z4: Booking confirmed	Fora booking added (via email parse)	Create commission tracking row + set follow-up reminders
Z5: Cold reply triage	Reply email received	Forward to VA Slack channel for triage

SECTION 10

The Sales Conversation Playbook

Closing is just discovery + match + ask. Most travel advisors over-talk and under-listen.

The 20-Minute Discovery Call (Leisure)

MIN	PHASE	WHAT YOU DO / SAY
0–2	Rapport + agenda	"Thanks for booking. Quick agenda: I'll ask about your trip ideas + budget for ~12 min, then I'll give you 2–3 recommendations and we'll figure out next steps. Sound good?"
2–6	Trip context	"What's the trip you're thinking about?" Open ended. Let them talk. Note: occasion, destination ideas, dates, who's going.
6–10	Budget + priorities	"What kind of budget are you thinking? Total or per-person?" THEN: "If you had to rank these — resort experience, location, food, value — what's most important?"
10–14	Surface preferences	"Have you stayed at all-inclusives before? Which ones?" or "Beach vs. cities?" Calibrate.
14–17	Match + recommend	Recommend 1–2 properties on the spot. "Based on what you said, I'd be looking at [Hyatt Ziva Cap Cana] for your $4K/pp budget — here's why."
17–19	Next steps	"Want me to put together a formal proposal with hotel + flight options? Planning fee is $300; refundable through the first revision if it's not right."
19–20	Close	"Sound good? I'll send a Stripe link in 10 min. Once it's in, proposal hits your inbox within 48 hrs."

The 10 Most Common Objections (With Verbatim Responses)

OBJECTION 1: "BOOKING.COM IS CHEAPER"

"It's the same price, actually — that's the part most people miss. The hotel publishes one rate; whether you book on Booking, Expedia, or through me, the rate is identical. The difference is what arrives in your room. Through me, you get a confirmed room upgrade, daily breakfast for two, and $100 in resort credits — all paid by the hotel out of their marketing budget. Booking.com keeps that money for themselves. Want me to send you a side-by-side example?"

OBJECTION 2: "I USUALLY JUST BOOK MYSELF"

"Totally fair — honestly, for a Holiday Inn in Buffalo I'd say keep doing it yourself. Where I add real value is on the trips you're spending 4 figures or more on, where the upgrade-and-amenity package alone is worth $500–1,500. Want me to ballpark what your last big trip would have looked like through me, just so you can decide?"

OBJECTION 3: "WHAT'S YOUR FEE?"

"Most of what I do is paid by the hotel commission — meaning free to you. For more complex trips (multi-stop, custom planning), I charge a planning fee that ranges from $300 for a simple honeymoon to $2,500 for a 20-person family pilgrimage. The fee covers the planning work — the actual bookings are still at zero markup. Let me know roughly what you're thinking and I'll tell you upfront."

OBJECTION 4: "CAN YOU GET ME A DEAL?"

"Honest answer: not on the rate. Hotels enforce rate parity — I can't price under what they publish. What I CAN do is layer real upgrade value on top: a $400 room becomes a $700 room, you get $200 in credit and breakfast, and a human in your corner if something breaks. On a $5K trip, that's usually about $1,000–1,500 of upside at zero extra cost. That's the real 'deal.'"

OBJECTION 5: "SUNWING HAS THIS TRIP FOR $3K/PP"

"That's a packaged charter deal — Sunwing buys the flights and rooms in bulk and bundles them. I literally can't match it because it's not the same product. For mass-market all-inclusives, Sunwing wins on price — full stop. Where I beat them is at the next tier up: Hyatt Privé properties (Secrets/Dreams/Zoëtry), Excellence, Le Blanc — resorts where Sunwing doesn't have an inventory deal but I have a Privé amenity package. Often it's $300–500/pp more, but you arrive to a club-level suite with $200 in resort credits. Want me to spec one out as a comparison?"

OBJECTION 6: "I NEED TO THINK ABOUT IT / CHECK WITH MY PARTNER"

"Of course. Two things to make that easier: I'll send a 1-page summary by EOD with the 2–3 options + amenities + total cost so you both can review. And I'll hold the planning slot for 5 business days — after that, the proposal slot moves to the next client in queue. Sound fair?"

OBJECTION 7: "WE WERE THINKING OF DOING IT THROUGH [DESTINATION WEDDING PLANNER]"

"Great planner. Quick thing: travel-advisor work and wedding-planning work are different scopes. Wedding planners do the venue, decor, ceremony logistics — I do the hotel bookings, room blocks, flights, and guest-side logistics. They actually work great together. Want me to coordinate directly with your planner so we're not doubling up?"

OBJECTION 8: "ARE YOU CERTIFIED? HOW LONG HAVE YOU BEEN DOING THIS?"

"Yes — TICO-certified [#XXXX], independent advisor with Fora (Virtuoso member, FSPP, Hyatt Privé, etc.). I started in [Month/Year]. What I bring that some longer-tenured advisors don't: I've personally stayed at 20+ all-inclusives, so when you ask me about Excellence Playa Mujeres I'm not reading a brochure. That's the unfair advantage I lean on."

OBJECTION 9: "CAN YOU DO THIS FOR LESS THAN [BUDGET]?"

"I can show you options at $X, $Y, and $Z so you can see the trade-offs — and tell you which one I'd pick if it were my honeymoon. Sometimes the answer is: you'd be better off going a tier up because the amenity package closes the gap. Sometimes it's: you'd be better off going a different week. Let me put two options together and you can decide."

OBJECTION 10: "WHEN DO I NEED TO DECIDE BY?"

"For [destination] in [month], the smart-book window is [X weeks] out for best rates + room category. After that, you start losing inventory at the better resorts. If you can decide in the next 10 days, we're in great shape. Beyond 4 weeks from now, we'll start seeing higher prices."

The Three Closing Moves

1. Soft close: "Want me to put a hold on those dates while you think?" (No commitment from them. Gives you sales momentum.)
2. Medium close: "If I send you a proposal by [Friday], are you in a position to make a decision next week?" (Reveals their actual readiness.)
3. Hard close: "We've covered the options. Want to go with [Option B] and I'll get it booked tomorrow morning?" (Direct ask. Used when the buying signals are strong.)

SECTION 11

The KPI Dashboard

What you measure is what you manage. What you don't measure dies in silence.

The Single Number: Net Commission Booked (Weekly)

NORTH STAR

One number rules them all: Net Commission Booked This Week. Computed every Friday at 5pm. Year 1 target: ramp from $0 to $2,500/wk by Day 300. If this number is flat for 3 consecutive weeks, you have a problem. If it's growing, the rest of the dashboard is leading-indicator noise.

Daily KPIs (Track in 5 minutes)

Quarterly Review (Day 1 of Q2, Q3, Q4)

1. Compare actuals vs plan. Identify the biggest variance (positive or negative).

2. Funnel ROI: Which channel produced the most $/hour of effort? Which the least?
3. Kill candidates: Any channel below 1.5x time-cost-to-revenue gets a 30-day notice.
4. Scale candidates: Channel above 3x time-cost-to-revenue gets doubled resource.

SECTION 13

Decision Trees & Pivot Triggers

When to Hire

ROLE	HIRE WHEN...	APPROX MONTH
Outreach VA (reply triage + admin)	You spend >5 hrs/wk on admin OR cold replies are above 20/day	M2-3
Content VA	Content production becomes a bottleneck OR you skip 2+ newsletters in a row	M3-4
Toronto editor / content lead	Voice-drift in content is becoming a problem (you're rewriting too much)	M5-6
First sub-advisor	You're turning away >3 leads/month for capacity reasons	M18-24
Ops / client services lead	You're spending >10 hrs/wk on booking ops (not closing)	M24-30
FT content producer	Personal income passes Target ($30K/mo)	M30+

When to Quit the Day Job

Dual-Trigger Required (Both)

1. Business condition: Net commission averaging $2,500/wk for 8 consecutive weeks AND
2. Runway condition: $30K savings buffer (6 months of $5K/mo personal burn) accumulated separately

Expected trigger window: Month 13-18. Earlier than 13 is reckless (no buffer). Later than 18 means the business is under-performing and you should rethink.

When to Drop a Channel

CHANNEL	KILL TRIGGER
Cold email	<3 bookings/mo after 90 days at full volume, after copy/deliverability/list iteration
A partnership	0 referrals after 9 months OR partner stops responding to monthly check-in
A social channel	Doesn't 2x followers in a quarter for 2 consecutive quarters
Newsletter	Never. Newsletter is your owned channel. Adjust the format if open rate drops below 25%, but don't kill.
A booking segment	If you're handling >3 bookings/mo in a segment that nets <$200/booking, charge a higher planning fee or refer out

When to Pivot the Brand

Don't. Brand pivots in Y1 are usually procrastination. The brand is set. The only pivot worth making in Y1 is the segment mix: if your bookings are 70%+ from one type (e.g., bach trips), tilt outreach to balance. The brand stays.

The Six Risk Triggers (Watch Weekly)

SIGNAL	ACTION
Net commission flat for 3 weeks	Run the funnel-by-funnel audit. Find the broken one.
Cold reply rate drops below 1%	Audit deliverability first (Glock Apps test), then copy, then list.
Partner referral pipeline drying up	Re-book 5 coffees. Onboard 3 new partners.
Newsletter open rate drops below 30%	Audit subject lines + sender reputation. Re-engage cold subs with a "Hey, still want this?" email.
Day-job interfering with business consistently (3+ weeks of missed targets)	Negotiate reduced hours OR start exit planning.
Personal energy depleted (3+ weeks of 60+ hr weeks with no progress)	Take a full weekend off. Drop the lowest-ROI activity. Reassess capacity.
